PRIVACY PROVISIONS

The information requested in this application form and your essay will be used solely for the purposes of assessing your application for the 2026 Writing Prize ("Prize"). Personal information contained in this application will be made available to members of the Selection Committee for this Prize and the AWLA Committee. This information will not be shared with a third party, unless otherwise stated below.

AWLA undertakes to store your application securely until a final decision has been made by the Selection Committee, after which date all unsuccessful applications will be destroyed within two weeks. You agree that AWLA may securely retain a copy of the successful application for our records as long as is reasonably necessary for the purposes outlined above.

Should you have reason to believe that information held about you in your application is incorrect, you have the right of access to, and correction of, that information.

DECLARATION

I have read and understood the regulations for the Prize and agree to abide by them. If I am selected as the successful applicant, I also give consent to the Auckland Women Lawyers' Association to use my name, essay and abstract for any publicity purposes in terms of promoting the Prize or the activities of the Auckland Women Lawyers' Association more generally, including submitting it to the New Zealand Women's Law Journal – Te Aho Kawe Kaupapa Ture a nga Wahine for publication. I also agree to the privacy provisions in respect of the Prize application.
